

Crown Chakra

Violet - 42 - 48 years

Sahasrara - Meaning "thousand petals", referring to the petals of light that make up the crown chakra

Crown chakra - Located on the top of the head

Subtle Body - Ketheric Template Body

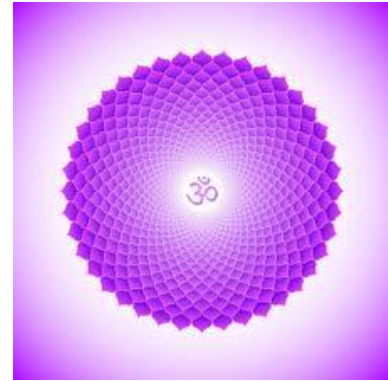

Life Lesson - Unity Consciousness

Endocrine Gland - Pituitary Gland - known as the "master gland" which affects the other glands in the endocrine system

Description - The crown chakra, at the top of the head, is where our Divine Self connects to the human form and where we experience oneness with the universe. This is where we receive divine wisdom and the flow of higher light. This chakra works to support the whole system by bringing in clear, cosmic energy which supports unity consciousness. A blocked crown chakra could hold us stuck to unwanted beliefs or create confusion or closed-mindedness.

Psychological Functions - Knowingness, Wisdom, Inspiration, Charisma, Awareness, Higher Self, Meditation, Self-Sacrificing, Visionary.

Associated Body Parts - Upper brain, Cerebral Cortex, Cerebrum, Pituitary, Central Nervous System, Hair Growth, Top of Head.

Physical Dysfunction - Depression, Alienation, Mental Illness, Neuralgia, Confusion, Senility, Veins, Blood Vessels, Lymphatic System, Bacteria, Warts, Skin Rashes, Eczema.

Depleted (chakra spins too fast) - Psychotic or manic depressive, confused sexual expression, frustrated, sense of unrealized power.

Blocked (chakra spins too slowly or not at all) – Constantly exhausted, can't make decisions, no sense of "belonging".

Balanced - Magnetic personality, achieves "miracles" in life, transcendent, at peace with self.
